

Dorothy Lees-Blakey

Latest Publication

"A strikingly elegant, and fascinating book"

Dorothy was recently reflecting on her truly kaleidoscopic and productive life, and surrounded by the evidence of her poems and lyrics she felt moved to review and record her decades of experiences, so humanely expressed in lyric and verse from her early childhood - from the age of six!

This impressive 200-page volume is well beyond a random anthology of poems.

Dorothy sees her life in retrospect as resembling a chain of mountains, with its peaks and troughs tragically divided into two distinct parts by a steep precipice, the early death of her adored and adoring husband Brian. And so the lyrics and poems are grouped to serve as reflections of her interests, activities, thoughts, moods, with appropriate autobiographical text.

Typically, Dorothy expresses the hope that for the reader the book will provide a chance to enjoy a wide-ranging collection of lyrics and poems and, in so doing, share to a degree, her multi-faceted life experience.

Amazon offers the book in Canada at the very reasonable price of CDN$ 16.48

Click here for a direct link to the relevant Amazon page.

Or in the UK at £9.95

Click here for the link.